“SPARX YOUR EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE” with Patricia Quiddington

Patricia Quiddington is a Professional Certified Coach and Corporate Trainer who has successfully worked with leaders, teams and C-level executives across different industries and geographies. Her style is best described as challenging, intuitive and business focused, with an emphasis on leadership growth. She uses a wide range of skills and tools (MBTI, EQ, FIRO-B, NEO PI-R and TKI certified) to advance learning. Her clients include the "Big 4" consulting firms, Fortune 100 companies, European Institutions, and private sector corporations. Patricia has lived in Southeast Asia, Europe, the US, the Caribbean and the Middle East. She works in both English and French.

Emotional Intelligence (EI) is the capacity to recognize our own feelings and those of others, to motivate ourselves, to manage emotions well in us and in our relationships. Research shows that EI is strongly linked to successful performance in the workplace. Our ability to think strategically, develop relationships, guide others and motivate our teams depends on how we manage and use our emotions. Come and learn why executives feel it is the skill one must have to be successful in today's workplace!
